The Magic Garden Tour recounts the island's historical past through its flora and fauna, represented in a visual history of the island. Visitors are given an insight into the plants and cultures that are traditional to the island and the activities that conditioned its natural landscape, from the tertiary ice-age, to the arrival of early settlers and the subsequent socio-economic development.

MADEIRA's smallest Museum From May 2007

Along the Tour visitors will also visit the island's smallest museum - the "Casinha de Prazeres" (Wendy House) holds a collection of antique postcards and images of these fascinating little edifices characteristic to Funchal's urban landscape.
